

INVITATION
8. SYSTEM DAYS

June 19-20, 2024 in Düsseldorf /
Germany

INVITATION

Ladies and Gentlemen,

We cordially invite you to the 8th System Days on the topic of “The future of streetcar transportation”. There will be a two-day program in Düsseldorf by the Rhine, including an excursion to Rheinbahn AG, Düsseldorf.

We are very pleased to be able to organize this event together with Rheinbahn AG Düsseldorf.

As every year, we have prepared a varied programme for you, this year deals with noise protection in the urban rail sector and digitalization, among other things.

On day two, our event offers an exciting excursion to Rheinbahn AG through Düsseldorf and ends with a joint lunch.

There is a link for the registration form at www.voestalpine.com/railway-systems/en/company/events/systemtage-2024/

Registration deadline is 31.05.2024.

EXCURSION DESTINATION

Rheinbahn is the local transport company for the North Rhine-Westphalian state capital of Düsseldorf, the district of Mettmann and the Rhine district of Neuss. They also connect Düsseldorf with the cities of Duisburg, Mülheim an der Ruhr, Essen, Wuppertal, Solingen and Krefeld.

Rheinbahn has always been there for people since 1896 and stands for flexibility and mobility. With their 788 vehicles on 135 routes, Rheinbahn AG transports around 760,000 passengers every working day in a catchment area of 570 square kilometers with over one million inhabitants. With its buses and trains, Rheinbahn travels around the world almost four times a day – quickly and in an environmentally friendly way.

It's the fifth largest local transport company in Germany and the largest in the Rhine-Ruhr Transport Association (VRR), Europe's largest transport association, with a total of 19 cities and 7 districts.

DATA PRIVACY / PROCESSING

¹ General data privacy and protection policy notice for event attendees

It is essential that we process your personal data in connection with your attendance at events organized by voestalpine Signaling Sainerholz GmbH, Oberahrer Str. 9, 56244 Ötzingern-Dainerholz ("voestalpine", "we"). "Personal data" refers to any and all information that relates, indirectly or directly, to natural persons (for example, names and addresses)

Below please find a summary of how the personal data of persons attending voestalpine events are processed.

1. Categories of data, purpose of the processing, and legal framework voestalpine processes the following categories of event attendees' personal data in connection with the organization and wrap-up of internal and external events:

- » Personal data that you provided to us at the time you registered for an event, in particular, your name, your business and personal contact information, your employer, and voluntarily disclosed allergies and the like;

- » Information obtained from public sources (e.g. publicly accessible websites);
- » Photo / sound and video recordings: photo / sound and video recordings regularly takes place during events to document the proceedings so that reports on the given event may be published in internal and external media and publications;
- » Other personal data that are disclosed in connection with your attendance at events or that are created on account of your attendance (e.g. time data related to your attendance), including any text documents that may be prepared and archived by automated means (e.g. correspondence);

Article 6 (1) letter a (your consent) or Article 6 (1) letter f (controller's legitimate interests: organization and wrap-up of internal and external events and documentation) of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) provide the legal framework for the processing of your personal data. Particular categories of personal data (e.g. regarding allergies etc.) are processed solely pursuant to your consent.

We must process your personal data for the purpose of achieving the aforementioned goals. Any failure to make the aforementioned personal data available at all or not in the required scope and/or any inability on the part of voestalpine to collect the given data might prevent you from attending the event.

2. Transmission and sharing of the personal data

Absent your consent, we shall not transmit to third parties your personal data unless necessary or required by law/order of government agencies for fulfilling our obligations.

voestalpine assigns the processing of personal data to so-called "processors" (service providers), e.g. event agencies. These processors are contractually bound to comply with the requirements of data privacy and protection laws.

The recipients described in this item 2 may be domiciled in countries outside of the European Union ("Non-EU Countries") where applicable law may not provide the same level of data protection and privacy as in your home country. In this case, data are transmitted in accordance with statutory requirements solely if the European Commission has issued an “Adequacy Decision” subject to which appropriate guarantees have been stipulated with the recipient (e.g. Standard contractual clauses have been agreed); if the recipient participates in an approved certification system (e.g. the EU-US Privacy Shield); if binding internal data protection and privacy requirements pursuant to Art. 47 GDPR have been put in place; or if an exemption has been granted under Art. 49 GDPR (for example, because you expressly consented to the proposed transmission of your data after having been informed of the potential risks to you of such data transmission absent an adequacy decision and appropriate guarantees). Please see the contact information in item 5 for further information as well as a copy of the measures that have been put in place.

3. Retention periods

If no retention period is expressly specified at the time the data is collected (e.g. in connection with a declaration of consent), your personal data will be erased or anonymized, provided they no longer need to be kept and provided statutory retention obligations (e.g. retention obligations under commercial or tax law) or legal claims do not preclude any erasure.

4. Right to information, rectification, erasure, or to restrict the processing of your personal data; right to object; right to portability of the data as well as right to revoke previously given consent

- » Under Art. 15 GDPR, you have the right to request a confirmation whether your personal data are being processed by the controller and the right to request information about the given data.
- » Under Art. 16 GDPR, you have the right to request immediate rectification of any inaccuracies in your personal data and/or the right to request that any incomplete data be completed.
- » Under Art. 17 GDPR, you have the right to request erasure of your personal data.
- » Under Art. 18 GDPR, you have the right to request restrictions on the processing of your personal data.

- » Under Art. 20 GDPR, you are entitled to the portability of your personal data.
- » Under Art. 21 GDPR, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data.
- » Finally, you also have the option of filing a complaint with the relevant regulatory agency.
- » If your personal data are being processed with your consent, you have the right to revoke such consent at any time and such withdrawal shall not affect the lawfulness of the processing of your personal data until such time.

In order to ensure efficient responses to such requests, we ask that you contact us using the contact information set forth below; we also ask that you always submit proof of your identity, for example, by transmitting an electronic copy of your identity document.

5. Contact

If you have any questions about data protection and privacy and if you want to exercise your aforementioned rights, you may contact the data privacy unit of voestalpine Signaling Sainerholz GmbH as “Controller” according to Art 4 (7) GDPR at datenschutz.sainerholz@voestalpine.com or voestalpine Signaling Sainerholz GmbH, Datenschutz, Oberahrer Str.9, 56244 Ötzingen-Sainerholz, Germany.

This General Data Privacy and Protection Policy for Attendees may be amended from time to time. Please see the footer for the most recent revision date. (15.10.2018)

Data protection notice

Please note that photo / sound and video recordings will take place during the 8th System Days in Düsseldorf event organized by voestalpine Signaling Sainerholz GmbH (hereinafter also referred to as “Us” or “We”), Oberahrer Str. 9 56244 Ötzingen Sainerholz, Germany.

By attending this event, you are giving your consent to the production, storage, and processing of photo / sound and video recordings of the event and its attendees by Us and individuals We have engaged for the purposes of documentation and public reporting (see Article 6 (1) letter f GDPR). These photo / sound and video recordings may be published in a wide variety of internal and external media (e.g. print media, television, radio, websites, social media) worldwide (even in countries with low levels of data protection) and may be used as well in non-commercial ways (e.g. articles in IT-Press, a voestalpine employee magazine).

Furthermore, so-called “processors” (service providers) engaged by voestalpine Signaling Sainerholz GmbH will process personal data (e.g. pursuant to an IT support contract). These processors are contractually bound to comply with the requirements of data protection laws. Photo / sound and video recordings of you will be erased or anonymized if they no longer need to be kept or because you have revoked your consent and there are no other legal retention obligations.

You have the right to revoke your consent at any time. However, such withdrawal shall not affect the lawfulness of the data processing carried out based on your consent until you revoked it. You also have the right to information, rectification, and erasure; the right to object; as well as the right to the portability of your personal data. To exercise your rights, please contact: datenschutz.sainerholz@voestalpine.com. Finally, you also have the option of filing a complaint with the relevant regulatory agency.

For more details, please see the Data Protection Notice for participants of events organized by voestalpine Signaling Sainerholz GmbH at <https://www.voestalpine.com/group/en/data-protection/>.
