

DefinitionsScope (1)

(1) The following Terms and Conditions apply exclusively to all business relationships with customers, unless otherwise expressly stipulated in writing. The version valid at the time of concluding the contract applies.

(2) Differing, conflicting or supplementary General Terms and Conditions, or terms implied by trade, custom, practice or course of dealings shall not form part of the contract, even if they are known, unless their applicability is expressly agreed in writing.

Conclusion of the contract (2)

(1) All our offers are non-binding and subject to alteration. Documentation and information pertaining to our offers – such as drawings, illustrations, samples and patterns, dimensional, weight, performance and consumption data contain or itself constitute only approximate data and information, which is not deemed to be specially agreed characteristics or specifications unless not otherwise provided.

(2) The customer's order shall be deemed to be his binding acceptance of the offer. In cases of goods being ordered electronically, we shall confirm receipt of the order within three business days. The confirmation of receipt does not constitute an acceptance of an order.

(3) Our order confirmation constitutes the only binding acceptance of an order.

(4) We are entitled to refuse acceptance of an order including without limitation after reviewing the creditworthiness of the customer.

(5) If the customer orders the goods electronically, the legally effective General Terms & Conditions shall be sent to the customer by e-mail.

(6) Oral agreements are not binding. Written counter-confirmations by the customer only become binding by means of our written order confirmation.

(7) Under no circumstances shall silence be considered as deemed consent. Changes or amendments to the contract, or order cancellations, or suspensions are only binding with the written agreement of both parties. Any costs resulting thereof shall be for the exclusive account of the customer, unless otherwise agreed in writing.

(8) We reserve the right to make changes to the technical or other composition of our products within the framework of applicable legal standards and/or product standards, as well as other reasonable product modifications.

Payment & payment terms (3)

(1) The offered prices are daily rates and apply until revoked. Price indications are non-binding.

(2) Unless otherwise stated, all offers and prices are submitted on an FCA basis, Incoterms 2010[®], excluding packaging, insurance and transportation.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed, the type of packaging shall be determined by us. Increases in freight charges occurring between the date of the order confirmation and the actual shipment shall be charged separately to the customer.

(4) The customer undertakes to transfer the invoiced amount in cleared funds to our business account after receipt of the total or partial delivery within 30 days from the date of the invoice. We reserve the right to amend the terms of payment. Nevertheless, we are entitled, without giving any explanation, to make deliveries conditional upon advance payment or the presentation of collateral. Time for payment shall be of the essence.

(5) We only accept letters of exchange and cheques when this has been explicitly agreed, in written, and only as payment for outstanding amounts. All discounting and collection charges are for the customer's account.

(6) In cases of default, we shall charge interest on overdue amounts in accordance with the Late Payment of Commercial Debts (Interest) Act 1998. In cases of default, the customer shall pay all expenses related to the debt collection process and the pursuit of legal remedies, as well as the court fees. The customer is entitled to offset amounts only when his counterclaims have been legally established or recognized by us. The customer is not entitled to withhold any payments.

(7) If the customer does not comply fully or in part with his payment obligations, or a letter of exchange or a cheque is dishonoured, or if we receive information that makes his creditworthiness questionable, or if an application for the initiation of insolvency proceedings is filed, or the customer proposes terms of a voluntary arrangement to his creditors, we shall be entitled to demand immediate payment of all unpaid, as well as not yet due or deferred invoices, and to demand advance payment, or the presentation of securities for all outstanding deliveries. In addition, we are entitled to demand that the re-sale and processing of delivered goods be terminated immediately. In the event of the customer not reacting to our request for advance payment, for securities or to our debt collection letter within a reasonable period, we shall be entitled to terminate the contract, or to repossess the goods, and to invoice the customer for all costs and expenses, including lost profit, that have accumulated up to that time.

Transfer of risk (4)

The customer bears the risk of the loss and accidental deterioration of the goods from the moment of the handover of the goods, in accordance with the agreed Incoterms 2010.

Instructions for products (5)

The customer is aware of the proper and adequate use of our products. Improper usage results in our warranties and liabilities becoming null and void. When using our welding equipment, the customer is obliged to painstakingly observe all safety regulations, technical rules, operating instructions and user manuals.

Obligation to accept, storage period and storage costs (6)

(1) The customer shall accept the delivered products at the contractually agreed delivery terms and conditions within 14 calendar days, otherwise the customer is in default of acceptance.

(2) In the event that the customer unjustifiably refuses the acceptance of the goods, he must pay all transport and storage costs, notwithstanding his payment obligations.

The goods are deemed accepted three months after our notice of readiness to despatch, and the total purchase price becomes due at this point. Storage costs and any additional costs shall be charged to the customer from the 14th day after the goods were declared ready for dispatch, but were not delivered to or collected by the customer.

Delivery Periods (7)

(1) We are entitled to effect partial deliveries. The contracting parties agree that partial deliveries of goods or services are deemed the subject of an independent contract separate from the order confirmation, and that they are subject to these General Terms and Conditions of Sale.

(2) Our liability for goods not delivered on time is explicitly limited to those cases in which we have confirmed the shipping date in writing. Time of delivery shall not be of the essence.

Unless otherwise agreed, the delivery periods shall be calculated from the date of the order confirmation, and they are subject to the timely receipt of the input goods required by us. The delivery period shall be deemed fulfilled when the goods are shipped prior to the deadline, or the customer has been notified of the readiness of the goods for collection.

(3) The customer is only entitled to withdraw from the contract when the delay in the delivery date is attributable to gross negligence on our side, and he has conceded us, but unsuccessfully, a reasonable period of grace for the delivery. The withdrawal from the contract must be notified by registered letter.

Retention of Title (8)

(1) We retain title to the goods until full payment of the purchase price has been made. The customer must immediately notify us in writing of any seizure of the goods by third parties, in particular of enforcement measures, damage to, or destruction of the goods. We are entitled to withdraw from the contract and to demand handover of the goods in cases of breach of contract, in particular in the event of a delay in payment. The customer is entitled to resell the goods in the course of his ordinary business. The customer assigns to us all receivables to the full invoice amount, which are due him by the resale of the goods to third parties, and he undertakes to make a corresponding remark in his books or invoices. We herewith accept this assignment. Following this assignment, the customer is entitled to collect the amounts due him. We reserve the right to collect the receivables ourselves if the third party is in default of payment.

(2) If the goods are mixed or blended by the customer, we acquire co-ownership of the new item proportionally to the value of the goods delivered by us.

Warranty (9)

(1) In cases of defective goods, we shall provide warranty for the defect, at our sole option, by way of repair or exchange. If a repair or exchange is not possible, or has failed, the customer shall be entitled to request a price reduction or, when it is not a minor defect, to rescind the contract.

Minor deviations from quality, form, colour, weight or design, or that are technically unavoidable, or are in line with commercial practice, are not deemed defects and may not be claimed against. The same applies to deliveries based on samples and specimens. Damaged packaging falls under minor defects and does not convey the right to refuse acceptance.

(2) In cases in which the customer is entitled to issue notices of defects, such notices must be given, in written, within 14 days after the delivery of the goods; otherwise the goods are deemed accepted and a warranty claim is excluded. Hidden defects must be reported, in writing, immediately upon discovery and any processing must be terminated. The notice of defects must be specified exactly.

(3) The warranty period for the goods is 24 months from the date when the risk has transferred to the customer. This period also applies to hidden defects. Assumption of defectiveness at the time of delivery shall be explicitly excluded.

(4) In the event of hidden defects that were notified in time, the customer shall be obliged to give us an opportunity to review the delivery in question within a reasonable period of time.

(5) Except as provided in these General Terms and Conditions we shall have no liability to the customer on respect of the goods failure to comply with the warranty. Unless otherwise contractually agreed, we do not warrant or accept any liability for the characteristics or the usability of the goods for a specific purpose, other than those explicitly agreed to by us.

Liability (10)

(1) Our liability under the contract is limited to liability arising due to our intent and gross negligence. We shall under no circumstances whatsoever be liable to the customer, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, for any indirect loss, consequential loss, financial loss, loss of interest, loss of profit and damages from claims of third parties against the customer.

(2) The limitations of liability in this clause 10 do not apply to death or personal injury caused by our negligence, in relation to the Consumer Protection Act 1987 or any other liability which cannot be restricted under English Law.

(3) Subject to the provisions of this clause 10 our total liability in respect of all losses arising under or in connection with the contract, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, or otherwise, shall in no circumstances exceed, the total net value of the order of the individual shipment related to the damage (excl. any surcharges for transport, packaging, storage or duties).

(4) Technical consultations and information about processing and possible uses of our goods that we provide free of charge are deemed a service without commitment, and for which we assume no liability.

(5) We are only liable for our own content on the company's website. In the event that we provide links to other website, we are not liable for the third party content included in such websites. In the event that we obtain knowledge of illegal content on external websites, we shall immediately block access to such sites.

Non-disclosure (11)

The customer shall exclusively use all documents and knowledge that we declare as confidential and in whose confidentiality we are obviously interested, which he obtains in the course of our business relationship, for the jointly pursued purposes and treat them with the same care towards third parties that he would use in the treatment of his own documents and knowledge.

Data protection (12)

We shall process data in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998 (and from May 2018 the General Data Protection Regulations). Further information is available on our website.

Force majeure (13)

In the event that circumstances change under which the contract has been concluded, or events beyond our control occur that include, without limitation, natural catastrophes, non-delivery of input material, breakdown of machinery, interruption of operations of any kind, strike, lockout in our own company or in companies related to the fulfilment of the performance, or hindrances due to official directives, or sanctions by international authorities, as well as any causes that would make the delivery unreasonably difficult or impossible, relieve us of our duty to perform for the duration and the scope of the impact of such disturbances, or entitle us to withdraw from the contract entirely or from that part that has not yet been fulfilled, without the customer having the right to raise legal claims against us.

Export controls (14)

(1) Our goods and services are supplied with the provision that their delivery is not impeded by national or international regulations, especially export control regulations such as embargos or other sanctions.

(2) The customer commits to not selling the products to third parties of whom he has reason to assume will disregard such regulations or circumvent them. Upon request, the customer must provide us, without delay, all required information, especially as regards the final recipient, final destination and end-use of the goods or services.

(3) The customer (ordering party, consignee) commits to not using the goods, neither directly nor indirectly, in any way in connection with the development, production, handling, operation, maintenance, supply, detection, identification or dissemination of chemical, biological, or nuclear weapons, or other nuclear explosive devices, or the development, production, maintenance or storage of missiles capable of delivering such weapons, unless he holds the required official licenses for these purposes.

(4) In addition, he undertakes to be in possession of all required authorisations and licences in accordance with applicable export or import requirements.

(5) The customer (purchaser, consignee) commits to neither directly nor indirectly selling, exporting, re-exporting, supplying, transferring or making the supplied goods otherwise accessible to persons, companies, institutions, or organisations, or in countries when this would contravene European, English, or, to the extent applicable, UN-, US (re-)export regulations.

(6) In the case of re-selling/transfer of the supplied goods, the customer (purchaser, consignee) commits to making his customer aware of all export-related regulations and to passing on all obligations resulting therefrom.

(7) On request, the customer commits to issuing an end-use certificate and to sending the original to us, in order to enable us to prove the end-use and intended purpose.

(8) The customer (purchaser, consignee) shall indemnify us against any damages resulting to us from any culpable non-compliance with the European, English or UN-, US (re-)export regulations by the customer (purchaser, consignee) and release us from any liability towards third parties.

(9) Our offers, order confirmations, and the contract, as well as the fulfilment thereof, are subject to us obtaining all required export or transfer licenses, or any other permits in connection with export regulations or releases from the relevant authorities, and to there not being other legal obstacles in connection with export regulations that we, as exporters or shipper, or any of our suppliers, must adhere to.

Compliance (15)

The principles and guidelines for a sustainable ethically, morally, and legally unobjectionable behaviour in business, as defined in the latest version of the 'Code of Conduct of voestalpine AG' and the related 'Code of Conduct for voestalpine Business Partners' are available under <http://www.voestalpine.com/group/en/group/compliance/> and are explicitly deemed accepted by the customer, who supports their underlying principles and regulations. In individual cases, when patently clear and severe breaches of the underlying principles and regulations by the customer become evident, and which make a continuation of the business relationship untenable, we are entitled to terminate the contractual relationship for good reason and, therefore, with immediate effect. The customer commits to holding us harmless of any damages and disadvantages resulting therefrom.

Place of jurisdiction and applicable law (16)

(1) The place of performance of our goods and services is the location of our plant, and any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the contract or its subject matter or formation, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales.

(2) Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have non-exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with this contract or its subject matter or formation.

(3) If one or more of the provisions become ineffective, the other provisions remain binding.

(4) No one other than a party to this contract shall have any right to enforce any of its terms.

(5) A reference to a statute or statutory provision is a reference to such statute or provision as amended or re-enacted.
